TAKE NOTE: On a Midpoint Tree, the TOP or the Middle Planet is the most powerful and is the one handling or guising the entire team. The team members are the two planets below it

19:40:33 From Fei to Everyone:

Guiding, sorry

19:42:42 From Phillip Maxwell to Everyone:

I get the feeling that the top planet is more involved with one of the other 2 planets in the midpoint, so the interpretation could be different depending on which planet is more involved with the focal planet.

19:43:15 From Kristen Rodzos to Everyone:

Wondering...has anyone thought to, or is it valuable to take all the Top Planets of the midpoints and look up their meaning? I guess we're kinda doing that already. I'm thinking if you have all of your planets connected (like Marilyn does) it would be helpful to do.

19:43:57 From Fei to Everyone:

Yes Phillip, The top planet which is in the middle is the focal point. The energy changes depending on what other 2 planets are involved and in what vibe chart it is in

19:44:09 From Kristen Rodzos to Everyone:

Another question.. How do we find planet Icons if we want to add them in the text box in graphics

19:45:25 From Kristen Rodzos to Everyone:

I was also wondering how we can search in the data base people who have a strong vibration so we can see what they have in common

19:45:38 From Fei to Everyone:

Hi Kristen, yes indeed. But while looking at the midpoint tree it is important that you ONLY focus and analyze the midpoint tree that has the SMALLEST orb. This will avoid you having to digress somewhere that is not necessary

yes, felt it when you said it

20:16:30 From Fei to Everyone:
